

Indra F1

Type:

A blocky hybrid pepper which eventually turns red at full physiological maturity

Plant:

Medium sized bush, strong vigor erect plants with good cover and fruit setting

Earliness:

Medium.

Maturity:

90 days after transplanting

Fruit:

Large deep blocky 3-4 lobes, thick wall, average size 12.5x10 cm. Medium dark green turning red at maturity.

Average fruit weight:

220gm.

Yield:

25-30 tonnes per acre open field and 50-60 tonnes in the green house.

- Harvest at 75-90 days for green market.
- Harvest at 90-120 days for red market.
- Harvest period: 10 weeks in the open field and 4-6 months in the green house.

Disease tolerance:

Potato Virus Y; Tobacco Etch Virus; Tobacco Mosaic Virus

10,000 plants per acre